SOUTH FLORIDA PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZERS TO VOLUNTEER THEIR SERVICES TO JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT OF THE PALM BEACHES

West Palm Beach, Florida, May 11, 2011 – On Wednesday, June 15th, a team of professional organizers representing the National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO) South Florida Chapter will donate their services to Junior Achievement of the Palm Beaches, Inc. at its headquarters in West Palm Beach.

“We donate our time at least twice a year to transfer our organizing skills to worthy organizations.” said Suzy Wilkoff, event coordinator. “These events are fulfilling for us and very beneficial to the recipients.”

A team of organizers will assist Junior Achievement with a variety of organizing projects. Staff will benefit from the organizing process and be provided with tips to maintain their improved work environments.

To learn more about this year’s community service project, contact NAPO South Florida President, Michelle Katzman at 772-288-6245.

To locate a professional organizer in your area, visit NAPO South Florida’s website, www.naposouthflorida.com or www.napo.net to search the NAPO National website.
